

Azimut Alternative Capital Partners Teams up with BroadLight Capital and Acquires a Minority Equity Interest in the Firm

Total Private Markets AuM managed by AACP's affiliates reaches ca. $12 billion

New York / Milan, April 12, 2022

Azimut Group ("Azimut" or the "Group"), one of Europe's largest independent asset managers, via its US subsidiary Azimut Alternative Capital Partners, LLC ("AACP"), entered into agreements to acquire a minority equity interest in BroadLight Holdings, L.P. and certain affiliated entities (together, "BroadLight"), a private equity investment firm focused on high-growth, innovative companies across the global technology and consumer landscape.

AACP was established in November 2019 with the purpose of partnering with private market-focused alternative asset managers by providing them with permanent capital to grow and reach their greatest business potential. The transaction with BroadLight marks AACP's fourth transaction. AACP completed its first deal in 2020 with the acquisition of a ca. 20% stake in opportunistic private credit firm Kennedy Lewis, followed by the March 2021 acquisition of a stake in HighPost Capital and the July 2021 acquisition of a ca. 20% stake in asset-based lending private credit firm Pathlight Capital. With this new transaction, total Private Markets AuM managed by AACP affiliates is now $12 billion (ca. $2.3bn pro-rata).

BroadLight is a private equity investment firm focused on high-growth, innovative companies across the global technology and consumer landscape. The firm was founded in 2021 by partners David Dorfman, who has over 21 years of technology and media investment banking advisory and principal investing experience at merchant banking platforms, Rick Yorn, the CEO and Founder of LBI Entertainment, a leading independent talent management & production firm and Kevin Yorn, the Managing and Founding Partner of Yorn Levine, a prominent entertainment & business law firm. BroadLight seeks to connect its extensive network within the media and entertainment industry and the skills and experiences of its principals to enable entrepreneurs and founders to grow and create long-term value for its portfolio companies. Collectively, Rick's and Kevin's firms represent some of the most iconic names in entertainment, including Jessica Biel, Lily Collins, Steph Curry, Charli D'Amelio, Ellen DeGeneres, Benicio Del Toro, Cameron Diaz, Leonardo DiCaprio, Snoop Dogg, Jamie Foxx, Jonah Hill, Scarlett Johansson, Alicia Keys, Jennifer Lawrence, Matthew McConaughey, Jordan Peele, Chris Rock, Zoe Saldaña, Martin Scorsese, the creators of Squid Game, the creators of Stranger Things, Jason Sudeikis, Justin Timberlake, Reese Witherspoon, and many others.

BroadLight's investment team is led by David Dorfman and includes Landon Jaussi and Kenneth Chan. Mr. Jaussi has 10 years of growth capital and investment banking experience and previously worked as a growth equity investor at Wellington Management and Technology Crossover Ventures. Mr. Chan has 15 years of growth capital and principal investment experience and previously worked at Macquarie Capital and Tennenbaum Capital Partners.

The transaction entails AACP acquiring a ca. 10% equity interest in BroadLight and contributing permanent capital to the business going forward. The transaction proceeds will be used to grow and invest in the business in the form of growth capital, bolstering the team's commitment to drive the long-term value of the business. There will be no changes in the strategy, management, investment process or day-to-day operations of BroadLight or any BroadLight-managed vehicle as a result of AACP's investment. AACP will have an observer seat on the BroadLight Investment Committee.
